

MEMBER PROFILE: MARK HOPKINS

Age:	Skiing every day makes my age go backwards so I think I'm about 11
Home Adaptive Snowsports Club:	VASS – Vancouver Adaptive Snow Sports
How long have you been a member:	12 seasons
What is your favourite thing about skiing:	The blissful state of "I Can"
How has it changed your life:	Skiing is the first thing I do every day - out of season I think about it every day as I look forward to the next time...
Season goal:	Getting people on the mountain - "anyone, anywhere, anytime"
Dream destination:	I will be part of the CADS trip to the Monashees this season - let's start with that...
What other sports do you do:	Cycling, kayaking, mountain hiking Favourite Quote: "O what a rogue and peasant skier am I" -'Shakespeare
Nickname:	Hawkeye

Funny anecdote:

I was the only Blue Streaker able to go to the BOB Camp a few years ago, and our head coach said "Leave early in the morning to save one night in the hotel", so I left early and halfway there my muffler was dangling and roaring down the highway, but I kept going and made it time for first runs at Silver Star!

If you have ever had any correspondence with Mark, you know that this Member profile needs to be signed off with

Be skiing you later!

